

1. Medical-Surgical Nursing I

- Introduction to medical-surgical nursing
- Inflammation, infection, and immunity
- Care of patients with respiratory disorders
- Gastrointestinal system
- Cardiovascular and circulatory system
- Blood and blood-forming organs
- Musculoskeletal system
-

Endocrine system

- Nursing care of patients with communicable diseases
- Pre- and post-operative nursing care

2. Medical-Surgical Nursing II (Specialties)

- ENT, Eye, and Neurological disorders
- Gynecological conditions
- Burns, reconstructive surgery, and oncology nursing
- Emergency and disaster nursing
-

Geriatric nursing

3. Mental Health and Psychiatric Nursing

- Introduction to mental health and mental illness
- Classification of mental disorders
- Therapeutic communication and nurse-patient relationship
- Treatment modalities
- Role of the nurse in psychiatric settings

4. Child Health Nursing (Pediatric Nursing)

-

Growth and development of children

- Care of the newborn
- Nutrition for children
- Common childhood diseases
- Care of children with special needs
- Immunization
- Role of the pediatric nurse

5. Practical / Clinical Training

-

Medical-Surgical Nursing (in hospitals and specialty wards)

-

Mental Health and Psychiatric Nursing (in psychiatric hospitals)

-

Child Health Nursing (in pediatric wards and OPDs)