

This subject focuses on the care of children from infancy through adolescence. It prepares nurses to handle common pediatric illnesses and promote child health and development.

Syllabus:

- Growth and development of children
- Nutritional needs of infants and children
- Pediatric assessment techniques
- Nursing management of common childhood illnesses
 - Respiratory infections
 - Diarrhea and dehydration
 -

Nutritional deficiencies

-

Immunizable diseases

-

Care of a sick child

-

Neonatal nursing and care of preterm infants

-

Pediatric medications and calculations

-

Role of family and community in child health